Here are some examples of how 'Spiritual' learning opportunities at Abbott, have impacted on the children's development:

PROVISION	IMPACT
■ RE curriculum: exploration of	Children respect others and their beliefs.
different religious beliefs	<ul><li>Curiosity: sharing experiences.</li></ul>
■ PSHCE	•Sharing and learning about others in the world.
■ World-wide celebrations: e.g.	Awareness for all members of the school
Chinese New Year, Eid, Diwali	community.
History and Geography topics:	■How Britain has changed over time and become
Historical figures and events	as it is today (British Values).
<ul><li>Special Learning Days</li></ul>	Imagination and creativity; mixed-age/collaborative learning/corporate responsibility.

Here are some examples of how 'Moral' learning opportunities at Abbott, have impacted on the children's development:

PROVISION	IMPACT
<ul> <li>Whole-school behaviour policy</li> <li>PSHCE</li> <li>RE curriculum: exploration of different religious beliefs</li> <li>Collective worship/assemblies</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Opportunity to choose behaviour. Moral consequences are highlighted throughout the process.</li> <li>Real life experiences shared and discussed, allowing children to apply moral thinking.</li> <li>Children are aware of the variety of religions in their local community and how these provide different viewpoints from their own.</li> <li>Awareness raised on a variety of issues. Real life experiences shared.</li> </ul>

Here are some examples of how 'Social' learning opportunities at Abbott, have impacted on the children's development:

PROVISION	IMPACT
■ We are a Kagan School	<ul><li>Increased participation</li></ul>
■ Community links: Urban Crew;	Successful collaboration in lessons and all aspects
Medic Students; PSO; PCSOs	of life
■ House Teams	■ Engagement
■ PSHCE	■ Social skills/cues development
■ RE curriculum: exploration of	<ul> <li>Celebrate with others in local area</li> </ul>
different religious beliefs	■ Self-worth
<ul><li>Celebration assemblies</li></ul>	Awareness of the world and life in Modern Britain
<ul><li>Intra/inter school competition</li></ul>	<ul><li>Respect for Democracy</li></ul>

Here are some examples of how 'Cultural' learning opportunities at Abbott, have impacted on the children's development:

PROVISION	IMPACT
■ School council	<ul><li>Children have a chance to vote/be represented</li></ul>
<ul><li>Zero tolerance of racist/sexist abuse</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Children demonstrate a deep understanding of why this is unacceptable</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Whole-school cultural events are celebrated</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Children demonstrate an awareness and respect for different cultures</li> </ul>
■ E-twinning	<ul> <li>Children have developed relationships with children in other countries/cultures and are enabled to reflect on their own</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Outreach services: Lalley Centre;</li> <li>Mustard Tree; Urban Crew;</li> <li>PCSOs</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Children are fully involved in dealing with cultural differences which are part of their direct home communities and how they link in with school life</li> </ul>